

Glenn Research Center

Containerless Ripple Turbulence

- Acoustically position a 10 to 12 cm dia water drop containing polystyrene spheres
- Excite large amplitude capillary waves on the drop surface
- Image the surface deformation using diffusing light photography
- Wave number power spectrum is used to determine structure and intermittency

